Key Risks

- Dependence on a limited number of large customers for a meaningful portion of ARR.
- Competition from larger observability vendors moving down-market.
- Execution risk associated with larger enterprise deals and extended procurement cycles.

(1) Net Dollar Retention is presented on a last-twelve-months basis; equivalent to NRR in Q1 2025 reporting.

(2) ARR per Full-Time Employee introduced as a recurring board metric in Q1 2025.

(3) Monthly Net Burn reflects operating cash outflows; excludes non-cash stock-based compensation of $0.38M.
